FINANCIAL AND EMPLOYMENT READINESS 263-8091

One of the twice-yearly TSP open seasons started April 15 and runs through June 30. During the open season, investors may change the amounts of their investments. Investors under the FERS system may invest 13 percent of salary, and those under the CSRS system and military personnel may invest 8 percent, subject to the tax code dollar cap of $12,000.

The TSP has announced that it will begin allowing investors age 50 and older to start making "catch-up" contributions, starting with a maximum $2,000 this year. Catch-up contributions are over and above the percentage of salary or dollar contribution limits that otherwise apply, and will be made by filing a new form, the TSP-1-C. Elections will be allowed starting in July, with the earliest effective date being the first full pay period in August.

For more information, contact the ACS Financial Advisor at 263-8091.

On 27 April, Torii lifeguards and beach staff rescued an Air Force Master Sergeant and three nine year-old girls from the ocean. MSgt Wayne Fillingim had tried to rescue the girls whose kayak had overturned. When he also ran into trouble, Yasuyoshi Hanashiro, an MLC employee who works on the beach, was first to pick up MSgt Fillingim and then the girls. MLC's Tomonobu Fukuchi and Masayo Miyazato then went out and assisted with the girls rescue and made sure everyone was picked up. On reaching shore, the girls and MSgt Fillingim were examined and deemed healthy. Read the full story in the Torii Newspaper.
